Kris Castro is a Faithful Warrior, an Inspiring Visionary, and a Bold Change-Agent after 50 years of walking with the Lord through both joyful and extremely difficult seasons of her life. Her company, Shift Inc.™, creates possibility-rich environments filled with laughter, encouragement, and affirmation, leading to endless growth opportunities.

Kris absolutely loves public speaking, coaching, training and mentoring others in a deeply transformative way. As an I.C.F. Professionally Certified Coach (P.C.C.), Kris helps Marketplace, Ministry, and Community Leaders see the world around them from Heaven's perspective to successfully forge new paths that have a positive impact within their sphere of influence wherever the Lord has planted them. She also works within their organizations to help executives and teams improve their effectiveness and produce more consistent results, leading to desired outcomes.
